Gainesville-Alachua County Association of Realtors® (GACAR) Recognizes 2016 Realtor® of the Year

GAINESVILLE, FL. January 17, 2017- Gainesville-Alachua County Association of Realtors® (GACAR) honored J. Parrish, as its 2016 Realtor® of the Year. Parrish is a Broker/Owner for Coldwell Banker M.M. Parrish.

The Realtor of the Year award was presented at the local association's annual installation banquet at the Best Western Gateway Grand with close to 200 people in attendance.

GACAR has presented the Realtor® of the Year award for more than 30 years. Recipients are selected on ethics, character, and personality to be honored as the Realtor® member who demonstrated continued personal involvement and support of GACAR and the real estate profession at a local, state, and national level.

Parrish has served as President of both GACAR and the Multiple Listing Service, Inc (MLS), been awarded the Tom Dobson Award for past president most actively involved, served multiple years as Director on both boards, and chaired several Task Forces and Presidential Advisory Groups.

Parrish has been a tremendous asset to his association, truly paying forward into his industry. GACAR is honored to name him 2016 REALTOR of the Year.

Gainesville-Alachua County Association of Realtors®, the Voice of Real Estate in Alachua County, is dedicated to elevating the excellence, promoting the advancement and ensuring the public trust of the real estate profession while providing our members with the resources, technology, educational opportunities and leadership necessary to conduct an ethical, professional and profitable business.
